

Woodstock Railway Time table

In effect Monday, 12.01 a. m., Feb. 10, 1913.

TRAINS GOING EAST.
No. 2	No. 8	No. 4	No. 6
Woodstock, 10.30	12.15	2.30	4.15
Taftsville, 10.37	12.22	2.37	4.22
Quebec, 10.38	12.23	2.38	4.23
Dewey Mills, 10.39	12.24	2.39	4.24
Hartford, 10.41	12.26	2.41	4.26
B. Junction, 10.43	1.03	2.43	4.28

TRAINS GOING WEST.
No. 7	No. 1	No. 3	No. 5
W. R. Junction, 8.55	7.35	1.05	4.19
Hartford, 8.55	7.35	1.05	4.19
Dewey Mills, 9.07	7.50	1.19	4.31
Quebec, 9.11	7.54	1.23	4.35
Taftsville, 9.19	8.10	1.30	4.43
Woodstock, 9.27	8.20	1.33	4.50

† Daily, except Sundays.
‡ Flag Station.
§ This Company reserves the right to cancel trains without notice.

G. H. LEONARD, Supt.
J. G. PORTER General Manager.
American Express transacts business over this road.

POST-OFFICE NOTICE

Mail trains arrive 8.35, 9.27 a. m., 2.38, 4.55 p. m.
Mail trains leave 10.50 a. m., 12.15 p. m., 5.30 p. m., and 8.15 p. m.
Bridgewater Rutland and Ludlow stages leave 5.45 a. m. and 3.00 p. m.
South Woodstock, 5.00 p. m.
Barnard and Bethel, 5.45 a. m.
Rural free delivery mail closes at 8.30 a. m.

MAILS CLOSE—For early stages 8.0 p. m., later mails, 10.35 a. m., 11.50 a. m., 8.00 p. m. and 4.40 p. m.
Office Hours—8.30 a. m. to 8.30 p. m.
SUNDAY mail closes 10.30 a. m.
FREDERICK CHAPMAN, Postmaster

E. F. WARDWELL

PLUMBING, STEAM,
HOT WATER FITTING AND ROOFING.

Our General Jobbing Department will give Prompt Attention to your wants.

WOODSTOCK, VERMONT
Central Street.

A. J. BOURDON

PLUMBING, STEAM AND WATER HEATING.

WOODSTOCK, VERMONT.

Gilbert A. Davis Gilbert F. Davis

LAW OFFICE OF

DAVIS & DAVIS

WINDSOR, VERMONT

KARL A. PEMBER

ARCHITECT

Office—Court House Building.

ADAMS & McNICHOL

CUT STONE

For Cemetery and Building purposes.

Woodstock, Vermont

Shop at South Royalton, Vt

NOTICE—W. H. Taft hereby gives notice that hereafter his hay scales at Taftsville will be closed to public use excepting to parties by special agreement.

WANTED—Red raspberries, a bushel or more. George Raymond, River street.

FOR SALE OR TRADE—Carload of horses, drivers and work ers; can be seen at fair ground and tried at your satisfaction. Time given, good bankable paper. Barney Leavitt, N. E. telephone 113-2.

Vermont Municipal Bonds

BOUGHT AND SOLD

The Hyde Park Savings Bank is always able to supply investors with all kinds of town, city and village (Vermont) bonds. Correspondence invited with parties desiring either to buy or sell.

Norman Williams Public

Library

LIBRARY HOURS

Reading room open from 7 a. m. to 1 p. m. to 6 p. m., and 7 p. m. to 10 p. m.
Librarian or assistant will be at the library from 10 a. m. to 12 m.; 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 8.30 p. m. Sunday evening until 9.

EDWARD H. WILLIAMS, JR., President.

Spring Water.

Water from the Country Club Spring will be delivered in the village at 25c a 5 gallon carboy.
F. H. STAPLES.
Telephone 142-6

WOODSTOCK NEWS

The Village Meeting.

A special village meeting has been called for July 22 to see if the voters will authorize the board of trustees to re-equip the stone crusher plant recently destroyed by fire. This Fourth of July disaster is delaying work on the village streets for some weeks and the road-making season is not any too long here in Woodstock. It is a matter of regret that the board did not see its way to order the re-equipment at once, but as it entails an expense of about $1500 the board perhaps justly preferred to wait for a formal ratification by the village. This will no doubt be forthcoming promptly at the meeting.

The warning also contains several other items for consideration—relating to the speed of automobiles in the village for one. This is a timely subject; there is too much speeding and similar disregard of safety to the public in the village streets, and if the voters will authorize the trustees to put the brakes on something will have been accomplished.

Liberty-Plunkett.

Miss Elizabeth V. Plunkett, daughter of Mrs. Michael J. Plunkett, of Lowell, Mass., who has been a resident of Woodstock for several years, and G. Wallace Liberty, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Liberty of this village, were married Wednesday morning at the Church of Our Lady of the Snows, in the presence of a large number of friends. Rev. Fr. H. J. Maillet performed the ceremony, which took place at half past nine o'clock, Miss Vachon, the organist, playing the wedding march, and during the service solos were sung by Mrs. H. H. Spear and Miss Mildred Chandler.

Mr. Terence L. Farrelly was best man and the bride was attended by Miss Rosemund Renwick of Lowell, Mass., who gave her in marriage.

The maid of honor was Miss Minnie H. Liberty, sister of the groom; and the bridesmaids were Miss Grace L. Gearing and Mrs. Christie B. Farrelly.

The bride's gown was of chiffon and real lace over white silk, entrain, with veil, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Renwick wore pink silk and the maid of honor's gown was of white voile and lace with pink girdle and white hat, and she carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore white dotted swiss muslin, enlivened with pink ribbons, hats to match, and carried bridesmaids' stiffs of ivory entwined with flowers.

The ushers were Messrs. George Goodroad, Allan Bourdon, Alain Marsh and Robert Slayton.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's parents after the ceremony.

After a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Liberty will be in Woodstock for a short time and then will go to Boston, where Mr. Liberty, who is a recent graduate of the Burdette business college, in Lynn, Mass., has a position.

William Dayton McCollom.

William Dayton McCollom, who left Woodstock in 1874, when 18 years old, died at his home in Greenfield, Ia., June 21, aged 57 years. He was the son of Dr. Ezra McCollom and was born in Rochester, Vt. He resided here ten years before going west, and for several years was clerk in the Chapman drug store. His mother, now 78 years of age, and one sister, are now living in Rochester, and one brother resides in St. Louis, Mo.

In 1875, having taught school during the winter of his first year in the West, he was appointed deputy county auditor and located in Fontanelle, then the county seat of Adair county. When the county seat was moved to Greenfield he moved there and has since remained. For two years he was county surveyor and for most of the time since 1877 he has been in the land and abstract business.

December 25, 1877, he was married to Myra Peat of Greenfield, Ia. To this union four children were born: Marian C., Howe D., H. Glen and Fausta, all of whom are married and are still living. Myra McCollom died in April, 1898.

On July 25, 1900, he married Mary Romeha, of Greenfield, who survives him. To this union two children were born, William Dayton, now 12 years old, and Mary Ellen, now four years old.

The French aviator, Leon Letort, made a flight from Paris to Berlin on Sunday without a stop in nine hours.

Mrs. Albert K. Hubbard

Mrs. Albert K. Hubbard, a resident of Woodstock for 28 years, died at her home on South street Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. She had been in poor health for several years. Her husband, a daughter, Mrs. Albert H. Powers, and a granddaughter, survive her. She also leaves a brother, Milo E. Woods, of Bridgewater.

Mrs. Hubbard was an active, capable woman, with many social interests, and was much endeared to a large circle of friends.

She was born in Bridgewater in 1844, the daughter of Elisha F. and Hannah (Barrows) Woods. In October, 1862, she married Albert K. Hubbard, the couple celebrating their golden wedding here last fall. They lived in Sherburne for a year or two, then returned to Bridgewater, coming to Woodstock 28 years ago.

The funeral was held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. H. L. Canfield officiating. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Lower Parcel Post Rates.

The postoffice department is said to be preparing to make changes in the present parcel post system that will increase vastly the traffic of the government service and ultimately drive the express companies out of business.

The most important result will be to bring manufacturer and producer closer than ever to consumer, even to the extent of enabling farmers to ship produce direct to the housewife. The department believes that this feature will decrease the cost of living. The middleman gets one-third to one-half of the retail cost.

The changes involve the raising of the weight limit to more than 11 pounds, the enlargement of the first zone and a big reduction in rates of the first and second zone traffic. The purpose of the changes is to stimulate traffic between populous centers and their suburban and farming territory.

It is contended if the weight limit is raised to 20 or 25 pounds, and a low rate of three or five cents the first pound and one-half cent for subsequent pounds is established, it will encourage truckers and farmers to ship to the city kitchen farm products in mail market baskets.

It is understood that the first zone may be enlarged from 50 to 150 or 200 miles. The rates under contemplation are five cents the first pound and a half cent for subsequent pounds.

BRIDGEWATER.

Miss Carolyn Furber, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Furber, has returned to Lewiston.

The Ludlow ball team plays the local nine here today. There will be a dance at Union hall in the evening.

Mrs. Deming and grand-daughter, Mary Gay Raymond, of Fair Haven, are at W. C. Raymond's.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Josselyn of Bridgewater Corners gave a party Thursday evening, July 10, in honor of the 18th birthday of their daughter, Miss Florence Josselyn, which was attended by young people from this place. Miss Josselyn received a camera and flowers from friends here, and a poem, written by J. Y. Briggs, was read by Miss Davis.

SOUTH POMFRET

The Abbott library grounds are improved by the removal of the old fence there, and this is said to be the beginning of changes for the better.

Harvey DeWolf of Lebanon, accompanied by a friend, was a visitor at the DeWolf place and at H. H. Totman's Monday.

Hubert Canfield and his friend, Willard Jordan of Akron, O., were callers on E. J. Paul Sunday.

The Grange will discuss this question at the Saturday evening meeting: Resolved, That human conduct is more influenced by what we see and hear than by what we read.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Atwood and son Harold have got settled on their new farm, "The Heights," where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

Henry Howe and his force of help are doing Mrs. Emma Adams' haying this week.

The wind storm of Sunday put on the finishing touches of a shade tree in front of the Paul residence that had been nursed for three years, so that amputation with the axe was necessary on what remained.

Elm Tree Press Fine Printing

WOODSTOCK NOTES

Hubert Canfield and his friend, Willard Jordan, started for Akron, O., Thursday, after a vacation of two weeks here.

Mrs. L. N. Smythe of St. Johnsbury is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Spear.

Mrs. F. R. Jewett is in Worcester, Mass., for a few weeks.

Mrs. L. H. Olzendam and daughter Therese are at the Marble home-stead.

E. F. Wardwell has the job of connecting 14 residences on High street, Golf avenue and Maple street with the public sewer, and his men are now at work. Part of the pipe lies in the bed of the South Branch, and the job makes necessary much damming and pumping.

Vacancies caused by the death of Judge C. H. Maxham were filled at the monthly meeting of the trustees of the Ottauquechee Savings bank, held July 9. William S. Hewitt was elected vice president to fill the balance of the unexpired term; William D. Clough was elected to membership on the board of trustees, and William S. Dewey succeeds Judge Maxham on the board of investment.

Miss Beatrice Cox is visiting friends in White River Junction.

Miss Katherine Kidder returned from a western trip on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Payne of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. George Payne of Baltimore are at River-street with a party of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilkins, Miss May Wilkins, Miss Edna Wales, Frank Wilkins and Harry Clark. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wolff of Boston are expected today by automobile.

Mrs. Louis Bourdon has returned from Woonsocket, R. I., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. William Genereux, and child, who will spend several weeks with her.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fisk, who have offered their place, Sunridge farm, for sale, are occupying E. A. Wilson's house for a short time. They expect to start August 7th on a horseback trip through Yellowstone park.

Oscar Farwell is taking a vacation of a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Foster, their daughter Beatrice and Miss Gladys Coming, a niece, are at W. D. Foster's.

Catcher Charles Hayden, of the Woodstock "clamps" of 1909, is with the Portland team of the New England baseball league this season. He is working regularly and batting well.

Mrs. H. C. Holt and child of New York are with the Misses Aitken for a few weeks.

S. W. Taylor, of Woodstock ancestry, sends from Iuka, Kan., a copy of the premium list of the Pratt county fair, a pamphlet of 166 pages. It is a comprehensive list and seems to promise a big mid-summer show of stock, tall corn, alfalfa, peaches and everything raised in Kansas. Mr. Taylor is the proprietor of Taylor's department store, at Iuka, the "oldest mercantile firm in Pratt county," and a copy of his house organ which he encloses indicates that it is a large and substantial concern.

The Fourth of July number of "The Times of Cuba" comes to the Age office from Edward S. Dana, who has been in Cuba several years and is now at Cienfuegos. The Times is a 48-page magazine, a review of the industrial progress of the island, and it contains much interesting comment, political and otherwise.

Roderic Olzendam, who is in the State forestry service and has been on Killington peak as one of the fire patrol established this season, was in town a day this week. As soon as his duties on Killington are ended he will interest himself in promoting the proposed trail from West Bridgewater to the summit of Killington. This will be four feet wide, well trimmed out, and will make a comparatively easy tramp to the top, a distance of about five miles. The trail will go past "Jugernaut," a mile and a half from West Bridgewater, and this point may be made accessible by teams and automobiles. From there the trail follows in a general way the old one to the peak.

Miss Luna B. Converse is at her home here, arriving Monday.

Elaborate plans are under way for the redecorating of the interior of Notre Dame church, St. Johnsbury, of which Rev. E. C. Droughin, formerly of Woodstock, is pastor, at a cost of between $5000 and $6000.

Elm Tree Press Fine Printing

Although the repairs will be made during the summer, the renovated church will not be dedicated until January 6, which is the 25th anniversary of the holding of the first service in the church.

E. I. Benson is planning to put in a coal yard at the Hagar place, near the railway station, to which the track will be extended. It will have a storage capacity of several hundred tons, and there will be facilities for unloading cars and filling coal carts without the labor of shoveling.

Edward H. Williams, jr., is building a large reservoir on the hill above his house at Westerdale, for irrigation and fire protection purposes. The work requires the removal of 5000 or 6000 yards of earth.

Mrs. Charles E. Colquhoun of Mills, Calif., Mrs. Lizzie Woods and Master Willis of New York are visiting Miss Clara Chedel. Mrs. Colquhoun, whose mother lives in Hartland, and her husband own an extensive fruit ranch in California, strawberries being one of its products, and employ Japanese labor largely.

CATERPILLARS PASSING

Tree Expert Says They Will All Disappear in Two Years.

C. O. Ormsbee, tree expert, tells the Montpelier Journal that in two years the tent and forest caterpillars that have proved such a nuisance this year will have entirely disappeared. His reason for this prediction is that the tiny parasites that devour the cocoons of these worms are getting in their work. There are but few living cocoons of next year's brood left and by the following year Mr. Ormsbee believes they will all be dead.

BETHEL

TOWN OF STOCKBRIDGE VS. CHAMPLAIN REALTY CO.

A band of commissioners made up of E. W. Smith of Wells River, J. E. Davis of Sherburne and C. H. Willis of Rutland sat at Gaysville Tuesday and at Bethel Wednesday to hear evidence in the case of the town of Stockbridge vs. the Champlain Realty Co.

The town claims that during the high water of March 27, when several bridges were swept away, damages were caused the town by logs of the company, estimated in the case of the principal bridge at $2000. Several of the town's witnesses testified that they saw logs hit the abutments of the bridges.

The company, at Wednesday's hearing, held at the National White River bank, introduced as expert witnesses, H. M. McIntosh of Burlington, Percy Smith of Wells River and Fred L. Dudley of Randolph to show that the bridges were not properly constructed to resist pressure.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

The commission was named by the probate court of the district of Hartford, in accordance with a section of the act of 1896 granting the use of the river for floating logs, which provides that in case of a disagreement as to damages the probate court shall name a commission whose award shall be final.

Elm Tree Press Fine Printing

The New Perfection Oil Cooking Stove

Daylight Oven and all the Latest Improvements

Hot weather is coming—They save labor

Perfection Oil Heaters for cooler days

Agate Ware, Tin Ware and All Kinds of Kitchen Furnishings

E. F. Wardwell

N. E. Telephone 3-3
People's Telephone 10-14

Benson's Mill

Sewer pipe, land tile, chimney lining, all sizes
Clapboards $13.00 and $24.00
Our cement beats them all in quality and price.

Shingles.

All grades $2.25 to $4.15

N. C. pine and Cypress house finish. Large stock of doors, windows and weights.

COAL COAL

E. I. Benson

COLONIAL INN

South Woodstock

Special attention to motor parties
Tea served 3 to 5 p. m.

Special Village Meeting

The legal voters of the Village of Woodstock, are hereby notified and warned to meet at the Town Hall in said village, on Tuesday evening at 7.30 o'clock of July 22nd, 1913, for the following purposes, viz:

First. To see if the Village will enact by laws relating to the Public Health. Also to the use of the streets for the purpose of moving buildings. Also to the putting up of signs in or over streets or otherwise. Also in regard to the speed of Automobiles within the limits of the Village.

Second. To see if the Village will re-equip the plant at the stone crusher, recently destroyed by fire, and if so to appropriate money for the same.

Third. To do any other proper business.

By order of the Trustees
Wm. S. EATON, Clerk
July 9th, 1913

QUECHEE.

Charles Cox, aged 68 years, died suddenly Sunday morning at the home of Frank Thomas. Rev. C. F. Echterbecker officiated at the funeral, which was held at the parish house Tuesday morning. Burial was in Bridgewater, where Mr. Cox was born. He was unmarried. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Calvin Macomber, of Florida.

The next session of the manual training school will be held July 28.

Two of the Gilson farm cows were poisoned recently when they nosed into an old paint barrel and ate some of the contents.

Mrs. Amanda Allen was surprised by a party of friends on Saturday afternoon, her 75th birthday anniversary. Among the gifts she received from her friends were a real shower of post cards and a work basket with all the equipment for needlework. Refreshments were served, a handsome birthday cake being a conspicuous feature.

The State Fair.

The seventh annual Vermont state fair will be held in White River Junction, September 16, 17, 18 and 19, and the competition for the premiums offered will be open to the world. The principal object of the fair is to exhibit the resources and products of Vermont and to stimulate Vermonters to greater efforts for the improvement and development of the state's agricultural and mechanical resources. Thousands of dollars are offered in purses and some of the fastest horses in the country will compete. There will be special amusement features daily during the fair and

Macc